

Please do not allow the weakening of Indiana's telephone privacy law. We do not purchase products over the telephone, and do not want to be called by any group selling a product, even if we have a business relationship with that person or group. Thank you.